About V.S. Pandian

From 1997 to 2003, V.S. Pandian was active in disseminating Dr. Covey's works in India either on an in-house basis for organizations such as Motorola India Electronics Ltd., Novell, Sun Microsystems, Lucent Technologies, Mahindra & Mahindra, HCL Technologies, Sony, ICICI Bank and Wipro, or, as public events in Mumbai, Pune, Bangalore, Hyderabad and Chennai. He believes in unleashing the talent of the human asset in organizations through living, and teaching, timeless principles and processes. Dr. Covey's work blends well with his own outlook and passions in life.

As Principal Consultant of Leadership Resources (Malaysia) Sdn Bhd, V.S. Pandian facilitates the institutionalization of the highly acclaimed The 7 Habits of Highly Effective People® training process as well as other training processes such as The 4 Disciplines of Execution®, and The 4 Essential Roles of Leadership®.

History

V.S. Pandian is the Chairman and Licensee Partner of FranklinCovey for Malaysia and Brunei. His corporate experience prior to this was as Group Operations Manager and then as General Manager to a public company in Kuala Lumpur. He has also previously been with a large public manufacturing enterprise as Training Manager and as Deputy Manager for Co-ordination and Planning. His work experience spans Corporate Planning, Share Portfolio Management, Operations Management, Project Co-ordination and Personnel and Administration.

Accreditation

He graduated from the University of Malaya in 1973 with a B.Sc. (Hons) degree in Mathematics, and a Diploma in Education. Upon graduation, he worked for the Malaysian Productivity Corporation as Trainer and Consultant for a period of nine years specializing in Industrial Engineering, Quality and Productivity.

In 1978, while still with the NPC, he secured a scholarship from the East-West Center in Hawaii to do his Masters Degree in Business Administration. He returned in 1980 with majors in Operations Research and Finance. In 1983 he left the NPC to join the private sector.
